The trouble then arose in Mr C.R. Reddy (then D.P.I.) ~~presiding over~~ having presided over a non-official educational Conference in Salem in May 1920 at which one of the resolutions passed criticised the omission of the Madras Govt to raise the pay of teachers in secondary schools & the Governor considered it generally undesirable that a ~~for~~ responsible officer of an Indian State should take part or preside over a Conference of the kind in Br. Submd. He has specifically asked for permission of Govt. to leave the State on casual leave. About the function itself, he seems to have promised to preside over the Conference as a matter of ordinary routine on his own responsibility. No information is given as to the constitution of the "Madras Teachers' Guild", or what the status of their Conference is or the subject to be discussed there etc.

It appears that Mr Subbaroyan asked for permission in some cases previously and did not ask for it [illegible] previously. In this case he did not ask for permission. It is perhaps a function of minor importance.

in the Hindu in connection with this function no important officer of the Dept of S.I. in Madras seemed to be present.

In the circ^r it is for consideration if the N.S.S. should be informed that we shd have taken permission to accept the invitation.

It is generally understood that when an officer goes to preside or share in any conference outside he shd take permission. It may however be useful to issue a circ^r letter to Depts inviting attention to the note under rule 54 and stating therein that previous permn shd be invariably taken in such cases.
